THE NAVINAM RAMANUJACHARYA SANSKRIT PRIZE.

A prize of the value of Rs. 100 founded by Dharmadhikari Dharmapravartha Navinam Ramanujacharya will be awarded by the University Council for the best essay in Sanskrit on one of the following subjects:—

1. The History of the Alankara Literature in Sanskrit.
2. Non-brahmin Contribution to Sanskrit Literature.

2. The prize is open to graduates of any Indian University provided they have taken the B.A. Degree within ten years immediately preceding the year in which they compete.

3. The essay should be forwarded to the Registrar, Mysore University, Mysore, so as to reach him on or before the 30th June 1931.

4. Each candidate for the essay should state generally in an introductory note and specifically in foot notes, the extent to which he has relied upon different sources of information and the portion which he claims as his original work.

5. The essay should have a motto instead of the writer's name and should be accompanied by a sealed cover containing the name of the candidate, the year in which he passed the Highest University Examinations, name of University, his Post Office address, and a declaration that the essay sent in by him is his own bona fide composition.

6. The essay must be the rasult of the personal investigations of the author and must contain clear evidence of independent and original research. Essays consisting only of criticisms, compilations or matter discoverable in or deducible from the writings of others will be ineligible for the prize, unless accompanied by the results of the author's independent research.

7. Each candidate must forward two copies of his essay together with a statement as to when and where the work was carried out. If any portion of the work was done in collaboration or under guidance, the nature and extent of such collaboration or guidance must be clearly stated.

The following is published for general information :—

Letter No. 1128—Edn., dated 5th June 1930, from the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education, Health and Lands, Simla, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Education Department.

STATUS OF UNIVERSITIES INCORPORATED BY LAW IN INDIAN STATES.

In reply to your letter No. 340 T.—Edn., dated the 13th May 1930, I am directed to say that the phrase "an Indian University incorporated by any Law for the time being in force" has been held by the Governor-General-in-Council to apply to and include a University in an Indian State which is incorporated by a law of that State. He is, therefore, of opinion that a University such as the Mysore University, which was incorporated by a law of the Mysore State, is an Indian University within the meaning of section 34(2) of the Dacca University Act.
